The screenshot shows a Mozilla Firefox browser window displaying the website for the UIC Center for Economic Education. The browser's address bar shows the URL cee.econ.uic.edu. The website header features the title "UIC Center for Economic Education" and the subtitle "UIC - Department of Economics". A navigation menu includes links for Home, Programs, Teacher Resources, Students and Parents, and Volunteer. The main content area is divided into several sections: a "Welcome!" banner with a cityscape image, a "Mission Statement" section with a list of bullet points and a photo of students, a "Contact Us" section with contact information for Helen Roberts, Erin Yucus, and Barry R. Chiswick, and a "What We Do" section with a photo of three young girls and a brief description of the center's offerings. The browser's taskbar at the bottom shows various open applications, including Microsoft Office 2010 and a document titled "Document1 - Micros...". The system clock in the bottom right corner indicates the time is 11:14 AM.

Mission Statement

The mission of the UIC Center for Economic Education is to promote high quality teaching of Economics and Consumer Economics at all levels of schooling (K-12 and college) in the State of Illinois. It does this by providing training in Economic Education for current and prospective teachers of Economics and Consumer Economics, and through research in this field.

Students should become:

- Knowledgeable about the basic functioning of the economy;
- Responsible citizens;
- Savvy consumers;
- Prudent savers and investors;
- Effective participants in the global economy;
- Competent decision-makers throughout their lives.

What We Do

The Center offers teachers, school districts, and community organizations the curriculum resources and training to teach the
