

Title

Integrates Economics with:

Elementary (K-6) materials:

Economics and Children's Literature
The Community Publishing Company
Econ and Me (videos)
The Gingerbread Man
Kaleidoscope, USA
The Voyages of Columbus
Zooeconomy: Zoo Decisions
Arts Mart
Seas, Trees, and Economies
Labor Works for You (2-4)
The Louisiana Expansion (4-5)
A Yen to Trade (3-6)

Language arts, math, social studies, art
 Reading, language arts, geography, history, math
 Language arts, math
 Reading/language arts, math, science, social studies
 Social studies (geography, history); language arts; math
 Geography, history, language arts, math
 Science, math, language arts, map skills
 World history, geography, art
 Science/environmental studies, language arts, math
 Career education, language arts, math, social studies
 Geography, history, language arts, reading
 Social studies, math, art, P.E., language arts, reading

Middle School (6-8) materials:

Zooeconomy II: Zoo Business
Money Math (6-9)
World Geography: Focus on Economics

Science, math, language arts
 Social studies, math, personal finance
 Geography, Economics

High School (9-12) materials:*

Capstone: The Nation's High School Econ Course
Thinking Economics
Thinking Globally
Economics in U.S. History
Learning, Earning & Investing
Economies in Transition: Command to Market
From Plan to Market
Economics of our Diverse Society
Risky Business DVD
United States History: Eyes on the Economy
Economics at Work
Advanced Placement Economics
The Economics of Our Diverse Society
Teaching the Ethical Foundations of Economics
Financing Your Future
Economics and the Environment

Economics, personal finance, government, social studies
 Economics, technology, business, entrepreneurship, marketing
 International economics, economics, social studies, geography
 History, economics
 Personal finance, economics
 International Economics
 Social studies, economics, business social studies, economics, civics
 Personal fin., economics, consumer economics, social studies
 U. S. History, economics
 Career education, economics
 Micro. Macro Economics
 Economics, sociology
 Economics, gov't, history, business, social studies, int'l studies
 Personal finance, consumer education, economics, business
 Environmental Studies, science

*All high school materials integrate language arts, math and other basic skills into the lessons

Multiple Grade materials:

The Mint (7-12)
Financial Fitness for Life:
 (K-2, 3-5, 6-8, 9-12)
Energy, Economics & the Environment (3-8, 9-12)
Choices and Changes (K-10)
Focus: Economics Series (K-2, 3-5, 6-8)
Focus: Economics Series (9-12)
 Geography, History, Civics, Government,
 Personal Decision-Making, Economics, Globalization
Virtual Economics CD (K-12)
Mathematics and Economics: Connections for Life
 (K-2, 3-5, 6-8, 9-12)
Econ and the Environment: EcoDetectives (6-12)

Economics, personal finance, social studies
 Math, consumer education, la, reading, social studies
 Environmental studies, science
 Social studies, economics, language arts, math
 Social studies, math, la/reading, art, music
 Economics infused through each listed content area
 Economics, personal finance, social studies, technology
 Mathematics, mathematic application, economics
 Science, civics, history, environmental studies

Online Learning Resources

EconEdLink: Internet lessons for the classroom, featuring:

- Lessons – Complete lessons that are ready for your classroom
 - EconomicsMinute – Economic concepts behind current events
 - NetNewsLine – Reviews economics principals underlying current events
- Current Events - Understand what's happening in today's world economy with the latest economics news and related EconEdLink lesson plans.
- Weblinks - Internet resources for the K-12 educator. Curricular activities and economic data in easy-to-use formats.
- DataLinks – Access up-to-date macroeconomic data for classroom use, including primary source materials, charts, and simulations.
- CyberTeach – A comprehensive guide to teaching economics using the Internet, including model lessons and templates for creating effective lesson plans on your own.

Address: www.EconEdLink.org

The Mint: A dynamic, interactive web site designed to increase middle and high school students' economic and financial literacy. Includes sections for students, teachers, and parents.

Address: www.TheMint.org

ECONnections: Lessons adapted and expanded from NCEE print materials, concepts include interest rates, trade, labor, spending, and more.

Address: www.E-CONNECTIONS.org

It All Adds Up: Web-based, interactive program designed to help high school teachers and students understand responsible personal finance management skills and the proper care and use of credit.

Address: www.ItAllAddsUp.org

International Economics: Teachers on both sides of the Atlantic have put together complete lesson plans for students ages 7-17. Students can be transported to the Baltic States and beyond with such activities as: "Gross Domestic Pizza," "Spinning Grain Into Cloth," or "Bartering for Butter."

Address: <http://www.ncee.net/ei/>

